COVID-19 Update: All Multipurpose Senior Centers and dining sites are closed to the public. All programs and activities at all facilities will be canceled.

Home delivered meals will continue to be delivered as usual. For more information on home delivered meal for seniors residing in the City of Los Angeles, please.. call 213-482-7252 for assistance — or use this map with plans for each site: <http://bit.ly/agingla> (<http://bit.ly/agingla>)

The Department of Recreation and Parks operates 29 senior citizen centers throughout the City. In addition, these centers offer activities, programs, and special events such as shuffleboard, croquet, arts and crafts, zumba, line dancing, language lessons, oil painting, entertainment, and social dancing. Some senior citizen centers offer a nutrition program through the Department of Aging. Several programs are offered through the Los Angeles Federation of Senior Citizen Clubs.

Free virtual events for seniors to learn, support, and engage with one another (<https://highway61.co/>)

ABOUT US

A Department of Parks was included in the City's first Freeholder Charter, adopted in 1889. Placed under its jurisdiction were parks and public land that had been set aside for the perpetual use of the community in the original Spanish land grants.
